PREFACE

Mr
J. UDAY BHASKAR
(M.Com)SICA GOLD MEDAL
Chairman

I believe that teaching is not speaking. It is making. I always treat teaching not as a profession but a mission. Discipline is never a part of education rather education a part of discipline for, with discipline, one can touch the peaks of success even without education. We can see many such great people.. Education is a progressive discovery of one's own ignorance. By lighting the lamp of inner spark and skills of children, we can dispel or drive away the darkness of ignorance.

Mr
CHALUMURU SRINIVAS
Vice Chairman

Mr. Chalumuru Srinivas, the Director, believes in striving for excellence in everything. CBSE pattern follows a compact structure which provides basic and complete knowledge for a child to move forward in terms of education. CBSE emphasises on CERT curriculum which is not based on the rote learning and provides a competitive edge at the national level after schooling.

EDUCATION SYSTEM - INDIA'S REVOLUTIONARY VISTA

VISION OF FUTURE EDUCATION FOR VISIONARY

Mr.J.K. KARUN DEEP M.S. London Director

Modern education demands modern methods of teaching and learning. India's education system is in need of a complete overhaul. The National Education Policy 2020 is the first policy of the 21st century.

The Indian school system is one of the largest providers of education to over 250 million students. Modern education is the contemporary way of educating the students in schools and learning institutions of the 21st century. The new education demands to move away from traditional mainstream subjects such as medical, non-medical, commerce, humanities, and focus more on life skills, critical & analytical thinking, and logical reasoning. The new-age education system includes using the latest technology like smartphones, mobile applications, audio and video platforms, podcasts, and e-books to educate the learners while engaging with great interest. Now, things work in a fast-paced mode where results are expected within seconds. Therefore, the education systems across the world must transform according to the evolution in demand of thinkers and creators.

TEAM WORK

I'am the one
But when I mingle with many
I become one among many.

I'am always playful
But when I join with many
I become joyful.

I can do many things
But when I do with many
I can do magic without strings.

So friends, I help you and you help me
No matter our job is small or big
Together we can create magic in glee.
